

Denis Lowe (internet extracts)

From BGISMEDIA

Dr. the Honourable Denis Lowe, M.P., specialises in Developmental/Clinical Psychology. Dr. Lowe has worked extensively with the University of Cincinnati (his tertiary alma mater) and in the state of Ohio in varying capacities, all with a focus on social development.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, which he obtained in 1984. A year later, he achieved his Masters in Education from the University of Cincinnati, majoring in Developmental Psychology with a minor in Social Science Research and Policy Development. He was awarded a Doctorate in Education from the same university in 1989. Again, his major was Developmental Psychology, but his minor had changed to Educational Research.

Dr. Lowe is a licensed Clinical Psychologist in Barbados and a Certified HIV/AIDS Educator with the American Red Cross at the Drew University School of Medicine.

He has participated in several research projects from 1988 to 1996 which included issues such as cocaine use during pregnancy, teens in crisis, community involvement in the fight against substance abuse, and the social climate in integrated schools.

(please note . 1. Why a licensed clinical psychologist in Barbados only and not a licensed and certified clinical psychologist in the US where he studied and gained the qualifications, as he is a HIV/AIDS Educator?

2. no mention of having taught at the university of Cincinnati or Wilberforce here (lapsed memory?)

3. the qualifications are written to mislead as if all were received from the same college, unlike below,

4 why having received a doctorate you don't mention the title of your thesis, or papers that you have written, but mention something as ordinary as participation in research projects and 5 if you are an excellent motivational speaker why does such not adorn your resume.)
